

Workshop Title	Mentorship and Coaching Management
Workshop Description	An organisation needs to continuously plan for its future growth and this will often entail instilling into certain key staff members leadership attributes and traits. These are developed over a period of time and often prove to be invaluable in terms of employee growth. This workshop seeks to assist delegates in planning and implementing an effective and viable mentoring and coaching framework within their organisations. The workshop looks at various benefits for both parties, roles and responsibilities. The workshop also focuses on the mentor, mentee relationship and effective mentorship and coaching skills are developed during role play.
